

Open Data Policy

The follow open data policy of the leading practices that reflect the desire of the Ministry of Interior in continuous development through opening up to the clients what they need to provide all of the data and information in a transparent and smooth as well as the contribution of opinion in the services and activities of the institution. And it can help open data to create new products and services and applications that will save time and effort on the dealers, and motivation to innovate. The goal of policy

Policy goal

This policy aims to clarify policies on the management of open data on the website according to:

- document the disclaimer on the website
- Terms and conditions existing on the website
- privacy policy on the website

Application Area:

Limited the scope of this document on the website of the Ministry of Interior and given that the document is open for continuous development , its scope can be expanded as dictated by policy Emirates e-government and related instructions

Terms of re-use of open data

1. This is the data usable and re-use and re-deployment by any individual or legal person or government.
2. When you use this data must be noted that the source of the Ministry of Interior in order to maintain ownership of the body of data and the credibility and validity of its source.
3. The data must not misrepresent any user data or source or misleading others.
4. These data should not be used for political purposes or to support illegal activity or criminal or used in racist or discriminatory purpose or Altovej or negative impact on the culture or equality or any other activity or incitement irregular or contrary to our customs and traditions. Comments
5. Ministry of Interior is responsible under any circumstances for any direct or indirect , incidental or accessory , special or extraordinary , perhaps arising from the use , or inability to use this open data , including without limitation loss of income , loss of reputation , loss of business , loss of data or computer crashes or work malfunction, or any other damages .
6. The user acknowledges the open on the website of the Ministry of Interior to use open data on the responsibility and the data body assumes no liability whatsoever to update all open data in the future especially when they are based on assumptions current and forecast may lead to the occurrence of certain risks and raise some doubts on the outcome of the results show a mismatch between the actual reality and the future expected and estimates .
7. body is not considered legally responsible for any damage which may be suffered by the user or any other person as a result of the violation of secrecy on the information that may be transferred from the user open data section and does not compensate them for it.
8. The electronic versions of the documents, the Commission published on this website for informational purposes only , the final version of any document of the body, the version of the original printed and signed maintained by the Commission, if it has the document was signed by the authorized person , the final version is the original printed and signatories held by the body , in the event of any discrepancy between the documents Valenschh retained by the body to prefer other versions
9. Ministry of Interior abandon all implied warranties and conditions with regard to information published in the Open Data section.

The responsibility of Ministry Of Interior:

Ministry Of Interior data in the portal at the same time the body does not warrant that there are no remarks upon as such data as reported to it by the government agencies or as a result of providing services . Ministry Of Interior does not guarantee the continuity of the provision of this data or part of it as it does not bear any responsibility for data users and what might fall on them from damage or loss due to re-use this data

The responsibility of the user data:

User data is to be responsible for re- use the data in the electronic gate of the body and should not result in re-use of this data any errors related to the content of the data and their origin and history.